

THE Oxford HOUSE INN

A Country Inn & Gourmet Restaurant

The clean, contemporary Arts & Crafts style of the Oxford House Inn celebrates the rich history of the area with dramatic use of hardwood throughout. Located just one hour from Portland, ME and 2.5 hours from Boston, the inn is perfectly situated to take advantage of all the Mt. Washington Valley & Western Maine's Lakes Region has to offer. Breathe in the crisp mountain air while canoeing the Saco River, skiing, hiking, biking, enjoying a horse drawn sleigh ride, antique & outlet shopping, or simply relax while enjoying a fabulous dinner in our highly acclaimed restaurant: all may be enjoyed from the comfort of our full service inn.

Four stylishly appointed guest rooms, exceptional food, warm hospitality and stunning mountain views await. Whether you are celebrating a special occasion or escaping for the weekend, the Oxford House Inn is your perfect year round New England destination.

Exquisite Dining

Dining at the inn is truly a memorable experience. Culinary Institute of America graduate chef/co-owner Jonathan Spak crafts his seasonally changing menus to showcase the best that local farms have to offer, using techniques from around the world in the farm to table concept. Enjoy spectacular sunsets or fireside dining while savoring a delicious and creatively presented meal.

JONATHAN'S

You may also choose to dine at Jonathan's, our lively pub. This popular gathering spot features creative specialty cocktails, classic martinis, local & imported beers and varied wines served in a casual yet urban atmosphere.
